Wellness activities can help individuals focus, overcome obstacles, get along with others and even fight off illness. Wellness programs are broad and can include physical fitness, seminars, workshops, classes, field trips, artistic endeavors such as trips to museums and a wide array of activities that promote overall well-being for our clients.

Log your miles on your fitness tracker, your phone or on paper- 12 miles between July 1 and July 28 with the final 1.1 miles on July 29th at 9am.
